

Count six months from final dose.
Postpone work during active medication cycles.

Do not treat dates as guarantees.
Prescribing doctors must confirm skin readiness.

Good skin today cannot guarantee normal healing tomorrow.
Six months is a minimum benchmark.