

Nor does “one day” mean “one procedure.” Multiple artists may create a single final image, but the body experiences cumulative trauma.

It is merely a light afternoon of simultaneous full-body construction.