

Clients must wait an extended period after completing medication before undergoing any elective skin procedure.
The lobby camping trip was highly discouraged by studio management.