

Even a low dose of the medication negatively affects collagen metabolism and wound healing.

The bomb squad refused to assist with the morning routine.