
Scar tissue resulting from aggressive stretching or skipped sizes does not contract like healthy tissue does.
She is currently drafting a formal apology letter to her own immune system.