
Direct skin contact allows higher release.

General limit is 0.5 micrograms weekly.

Pierced tissue requires stricter thresholds.

Piercing limit is 0.2 micrograms weekly.

Nickel allergy is a delayed hypersensitivity response.

Release limits matter more than alloy percentages.