
Large curved magnums are manufactured primarily for extensive blackwork and broad background coverage.

Some landscapes require heavy agricultural machinery instead of delicate gardening tools.