
Acute infections often present asymptomatically or as flu-like illness weeks after initial exposure.

TESTING IS THE ONLY WAY