V

The outer epidermis boundary thins significantly.

Decreases 8 percent every single decade.

The internal dermal collagen scaffold degrades.

Loses 30 percent by age 50.

Skin is a living organ that remodels continuously and loses protein.

The canvas changes over time.