

Nickel allergy predicts co-sensitisation to cobalt and palladium because the immune system recognises their similar molecular geometry.

We exclusively use the finest identical impostors.