

Smart polymer matrices remain stable normally but swell and release agents when the local environment becomes acidic.

Eating lemons constantly will not activate smart jewelry.