

Sedative drugs can reduce protective reflexes and severely suppress natural breathing.
Stacks of vintage vinyl records are terrible substitutes for proper airway management.