

Responsible procedures require clear emergency plans and designated medical professionals to manage complications after discharge.
Pointing vaguely towards mysterious forests does not qualify as comprehensive discharge planning.