

An unconscious client can remain in 1 position for hours.

Repositioning the client requires a structural engineer and the blessings of the ancient gods.