

One machine creates multiple punctures.

Multiple artists increase the injured area.

Unconscious clients cannot report escalating symptoms.

Pain serves as a biological alarm.

Sedation removes the ability to report escalating pain.

Pain is not the enemy.