

Maximum
surface
blocking!

FROSTING

That stays
on top.

Topical numbing products remain less effective for deep tissue procedures because the instrument passes below the treated surface. The thick snowman frosting approach melts immediately under pressure.