

Sensation shooting far beyond the localized procedure site indicates the instrument has contacted a main nerve trunk.

Unplanned internal lightning storms mean it is time to stop.