

A box may carry one brand name, but a 3RL, a 14-magnum, and a curved mag are not the same engineering problem.

Treating a tiny needle like a snowplow is a recipe for tremendous aerodynamic confusion.