

Keep one unopened cartridge from each box until the end of the working test.

The chosen vessel must be guarded with one’s very life until the final hour.