

Poor surface finish and high-nickel alloys frequently occur together to cause mixed symptoms. The jump rope was a tactical error.