

Used needles must be discarded directly into a dedicated sharps container rather than a common wastebasket.

Sometimes missing the target is a structural failure.