

A proper consultation requires enough time to understand placement and healing before the machine starts.

Spontaneity is excellent for jazz but terrible for permanent body modifications.