

Following dressing instructions means resisting the urge to remove a protective covering early just to inspect the artwork.

Patience is a virtue rarely found near a bathroom mirror.