

Healing skin should be washed with mild cleanser rather than scrubbed or exposed to harsh antiseptics.

You are washing a delicate surface, not cleaning an engine block.