

The event is presented as a 3-day gathering for tattoo art, creativity and international community.
And a three-week biological experiment for anyone immediately flying to the beach.