

The relationship between consultation quality and informed consent involves a 20-minute consultation. A noble quest to understand that “just put it anywhere” is not a placement strategy.