

Courts uphold administrative authority over appearance standards without issuing a complete ban on body art.

Compromise is an art form.