

The United States Army relaxed policies in 2022, permitting tattoos on hands and behind ears.

Getting a portrait of a hand behind your ear is compliant but conceptually baffling.