

Leaving current sizes in place out of pride increases pressure and worsens scar tissue.
Refusing to step backward makes walking incredibly difficult.