

Regulatory frameworks for body art across the Asia-Pacific region remain highly fragmented and completely inconsistent.
The path to regional harmony is blocked by a mountain of contradictory manuals.