

Implant grade titanium specification is ASTM F136.

The surface forms a passive protective layer.

Oxide reforms within milliseconds of mechanical damage.

Anodize at 20 to 30 volts.

This process produces a permanent aesthetic gold tone.

TITANIUM REMAINS FULLY BIOCOMPATIBLE.