

Uncontrolled high blood pressure increases bleeding during the procedure and slows healing.

Atmospheric aerodynamics require stable cardiovascular vitals.