

In 25 years in this industry, the most common thing clients withhold is their medication list. Suddenly, those daily multivitamins and blood thinners are classified state secrets.