

Direct pressure from sleeping on the side of a healing cartilage piercing is a primary cause of prolonged inflammation.

Gravity remained the prime suspect in the ongoing sleep deprivation case.