

Over-cleaning 4 or 5 times a day strips the fistula and produces redness that mimics early infection.

The human body is not a kitchen floor.