

Piercing swelling peaks at 48 to 72 hours, then subsides and softens.

A millimeter of swelling demands a monument of courage.