

Clean 2 times daily with sterile saline.

Pat the affected area dry with non-woven gauze.

Keep the healing skin site cool and completely dry.

Leave the healing piercing alone after daily cleaning.

Over-cleaning produces redness that mimics early bacterial infection.

Clean exactly 2 times daily and leave it alone.