Never remove jewellery from a potentially infected piercing.

Removing hardware traps active infection beneath the skin.

Trapped bacteria will rapidly form an enclosed abscess.

Keep hardware in place and seek medical advice.

Removing jewellery seals the infection inside the closed wound.

Leave the hardware in place.