

Avoid shared water submersion for 4 to 6 weeks.

Keep chemical sunscreens off the active healing wound.

Prevent trapped moisture under tight occlusive waterproof dressings.

Rinse immediately with sterile saline after any accidental submersion.

Chemical sunscreens and chlorinated pools introduce severe healing irritants.

Avoid submersion and all chemical irritants.