

The best piercers sit down with every client for a minimum of 15 minutes before any procedure.
This is exactly how long it takes to realise you want a different font.