

Under the Mental Capacity Act 2005, intoxication impairs capacity and legally requires rescheduling.

Bones are highly recommended for the signing of legal documents.