

Typical clinical fluences range from 2 to 12 J/cm².

Precision clinical engineering makes an excellent reading light.