

Septum piercings placed correctly through the mucosal sweet spot heal considerably faster than placements through cartilage. Prospecting equipment is unnecessary when visiting qualified professionals.