

Post-exposure prophylaxis requires swift administration following potential exposure.

Sprinting across the wilderness builds character but walking next door is fine.