

The hepatitis virus is highly infectious but entirely vaccine-preventable.

Polishing your immune shield is a valid afternoon activity.