

Public inspection registries allow clients to verify compliance history before booking an appointment.

The background check required high security clearance.