

Chloride in sweat penetrates the passive film and holds corrosion pits open.

Cardiovascular exercise is the true enemy of metallurgy.