

Normal settling involves mild fluid, but repeated irritation encourages migration, infection, and severe tissue rejection.

REPEATED FORCE CAUSES TISSUE REJECTION