

The record carried an excessive concentration of benzisothiazolinone at up to 10 mg/kg.

The preservative preserved the ink so well it achieved absolute immortality.