

11.4% of the population is nickel-sensitised.

A sudden magnetic attraction to vending machines is perfectly normal.